VOLUME CVII.--NO. 175. ALEXANDRIA, VA., MONDAY EVENING, JULY 23, 1906. PRICE 2 CENTS.

OPEN PUBLICITY THE BEST GUARANTY OF MERIT.

When the maker of a medicine, sold through druggists for family use, takes his patients fully into his confidence by frankly and fearlessly publishing broadcast as well as on its bottle wrappers, a full list of all its ingredients in plain English, this action on his part is the best possible evidence that he is not afraid to have the search light of investigation turned full upon his formula and that it will bear the fullest scrutiny and the most thorough investigation. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for the cure of the weaknesses, periodical pains and functional derangements of the organs distinctly feminine, is the only medicine put up for sale through druggists for woman's special use, the maker of which is not afraid to take his patients into his full confidence by such open and honest publicity.

A glance at the published ingredients on each bottle wrapper, will show that it is made wholly from native, American, medicinal roots, that it contains no poisonous or habit-forming drugs, no narcotics and no alcohol—pure, triple-refined glycerine, of proper strength being used instead of the commonly employed alcohol, both for extracting and preserving the active medicinal properties found in the roots of the American forest plants employed. It is the only medicine for women's pecular diseases, sold by druggists, that does not contain a large percentage of alcohol, which is in the long run so harmful to woman's delicate nervous system. Now, glycerine is perfectly harmless, and serves a valuable purpose by possessing intrinsic value all its own, and besides it enhances the curative effect of the other ingredients entering into the "Favorite Prescription."

Some of the ablest medical writers and teachers endorse these views and praise all the several ingredients of which "Favorite Prescription" is composed—recommending them for the cure of the very same diseases for which this world-famed medicine is advised. No other medicine for women has any such professional endorsement—worth more than any number of ordinary testimonials. If interested, send name and address to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., for his little book of extracts from the works of eminent medical writers and teachers, endorsing the several ingredients and telling just what Dr. Pierce's medicines are made of. It's free for the asking.

MEN ARE POWERLESS

To Fight Against Disease Unless They Strike at the Underlying Cause.

To treat Dandruff, and Falling Hair, with irritants on this on which a parasitic germ will prosper, is like scooping water from the ocean to prevent the tide from rising.

You cannot accomplish a satisfactory cure without having a right understanding of the fundamental causes of the trouble.

You must kill the Dandruff Germ.

Newbro's Herpicide does this because it is specially made to do that very thing.

When the germ is removed, the hair has no choice but to resume healthy growth and beauty.

"Destroy the cause, you remove the effect."

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

LABOR AND POLITICS.

The following extracts from the campaign programme issued by the American Federation of Labor are published:

"Congress has turned a deaf ear to the voices of the masses of our people; and, true to our declaration, we now appeal to the working people, aye, to all the American people unitedly to demonstrate their determination that this republic of ours shall continue to be of, for, and by the people, rather than of, for, and by the almighty dollar.

"Congressmen and Senators, in their frenzied rush after the almighty dollar, have been indifferent or hostile to the rights of man. They have had no time and as little inclination to support the reasonable labor measures, the enactment of which we have urged, and which contained beneficent features for all our people without an obnoxious provision to any one.

"If it has come to a condition in this, the greatest and wealthiest nation on earth, that the almighty dollar is to be worshiped to an extent of forgetting principle, conscience, uprightness, and justice.

"Labor men of America, assert your rights! And in addition to strengthening your faith and loyalty to your organization on the economic field, exercise your full rights of citizenship in the use of your ballot. Elect honest men to Congress and to other halls of legislation, and by so doing you will more completely and fully carry out your obligations as union men, and more than ever merit the respect of your fellow citizens."

Revolutionary Proclamation.

The following proclamation, which reads like a page out of the history of the ravings of the French revolution, and which was adopted by the Red Hundreds, a revolutionary organization at Baku, is cited in justification of the decision of the government to apply stern measures:

"It is the spirit of holy vengeance which calls upon you to destroy all enemies of the people. Let the bomb and the bullet carry death to the parasites and executioners of the people and establish anti bourgeois terror. Fallen is Boganchaloff, who dared to deny the demands of the workmen; fallen is Skoleleff, the exploiter who refused us money; fallen is the spy Dolshaieff, the faithful dog of state, who would not heed the words of the Liberal Eunuchs at St. Petersburg in favor of a propaganda of deeds and not words. The time has come to unfurl the black flag of anarchy. Down with the false Parliament. Long live murder and anarchistic communionism."

Mystery Solved.

The mystery regarding the whereabouts of Mrs. Anna E. George, who was charged with murdering George Saxton, brother-in-law of the late President McKinley, at Canton Ohio, eight years ago, has been cleared up by the suicide at Ravenna, Saturday, of Dr. Arthur C. Ridout. The deed also disclosed Mrs. George's marriage. Not until yesterday was it known that she became the wife of Dr. Ridout at Wheeling, W. Va., six years ago. The woman was acquitted of the murder of Saxton after a long and sensational trial in which it was proved that she shot him in self-defense. At that time Dr. Ridout was living in Salem, near Canton, with his first wife and their three children. Ridout was divorced from his first wife, and two years later married Mrs. George. Dr. Ridout was well to do. He committed suicide at his home by hanging himself to a chandelier with a harness strap.

Fight Among Excursionists.

In a fight Saturday night between persons on the wharf and others on the steamer Bonanza, at Ironton, Ohio, Carl Mayenochim was killed and four persons wounded. The steamer Bonanza had been chartered for an excursion from Catlettsburg, Ky., to Ironton. A large crowd was at the wharf when the Bonanza was ready to leave, and it is said that several Ironton boys boarded the steamer and were put off by the policeman of the boat. Just after the steamer cleared the dock, a shower of stones, thrown presumably by the boys and their friends, fell among the crowds that lined the rails of the steamer. Immediately a shot rang out from among the crowd on the deck of the boat, and a moment later a volley was fired from different places on the deck. About thirty shots were fired. Many inhabitants worked to a frenzy over the incident, swarmed the streets for several hours vowing vengeance on the shooters.

Dowie Starving.

John Alexander Dowie is said to be starving in his splendid mansion, Shiloh House, in Zion City. That the old man is in desperate straits for money was admitted yesterday by his private secretary, O. L. Speicher. "If it was not for the number of old friends who have continued to look out for Dowie during the period of his adversity," said Speicher, "the doctor would be in need of the necessities of life. Since he has returned to Zion he has not received a cent of the revenues of the industries of the place, which have all been diverted by Voliva to his own uses or turned over to his friends. It is pretty hard when one thinks that when the doctor has, by right, the title to all these lands and buildings he should be here and see the city raided without being able to get enough to satisfy his immediate needs." Dowie will hold a big celebration in the tabernacle today.

SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

MONDAY EVENING, JULY 23, 1906.

RUSSELL SAGE, for many years one of the most prominent figures in New York financial circles, has joined the great majority. He had passed the octogenarian mark and was making his way toward the nineties when summoned by the grim messenger to pay the debt of nature. Beginning life as a poor boy, working for $4 per month, he accumulated a fortune estimated at from $80,000,000 to $100,000,000. With great wealth at his command, Mr. Sage seemed to have had no tastes or passions to gratify. His aim in life was the accumulation of money, and he subordinated everything else in order to carry out this purpose. He is said to have always been in a position to command more ready money than any other man in New York, and during periods when money was scarce he dictated his own terms and reaped tremendous harvests at the expense of less fortunate financiers. He is now no longer a member of this busy world. His coffers were powerless to stay the hand of death, and the hum and bustle of Wall street will continue while bells toll his funeral dirge. Greedy men will rush on in the mad race of life, knifing each other and amassing wealth to be squandered by other generations. Very few seem disposed to make to themselves friends of the mammon of unrighteousness, and the query, "Whose shall those things be?" when their possessors close their eyes in death is as pertinent now as it was nineteen hundred years ago.

MANY of the western Representatives, who were pronounced "stand-patters" during the recent session of Congress, have been shocked on their arrival at home to find their constituents loudly calling for revision of several of the tariff schedules. This fact will be discussed at Oyster Bay today, and one of the first things that the President, Speaker Cannon, Chairman Sherman and other leaders will have to determine will be how to conduct the coming congressional campaign with reference to the tariff. Some concessions will have to be made to the revolutionists, and whether to stand rigidly by the high tariff, or show such leniency as will satisfy revision sentiment is, therefore, a large question before the Oyster Bay conference. Revisionists believe the President will align himself before long in favor of a change in schedules. A notable instance of a tariff change of heart is that of Representative Landis, of Indiana, who left Washington recently a "stand-patter," but on getting in touch with his district turned to revision. And there will be others.

A DISPATCH from Minneapolis says if the weather now prevailing continues another week one of the earliest spring wheat harvests on record will begin. The success of the crop depends on the weather. To do it damage rust must strike wheat before it is too far advanced toward maturity. It is now a race between the wheat and the rust, with the good weather favoring the wheat. The present weather, if it continues, will mean millions of dollars to Minneapolis and the northwest.

IT IS now declared by experts that the cigarettes made by the highly protected tobacco trust are "worse than tinned meat." It is also said that much of the highly protected American whisky is worse than tainted beef; that even breakfast foods and sugar are adulterated. But what is be done about it? The republican party has stood by consenting to trust adulterations as well as trust protection.

JUDGE VIRGINIUS BRACY, aged 68 years, a retired capitalist, dropped dead Saturday in a Suffolk hardware store where he had just paid a bill. This should be a warning to judges either not to contract bills or not to pay them.

THIS SECTION of the country is now and for some time has been experiencing a wet season, similar to that in the tropics.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, July 23.

The opening gun of the administration's campaign for the enforcement of the eight-hour law will be fired in this city. District Attorney Baker, on instructions from the Department of Justice, has instituted "John Doe" proceedings for the purpose of gathering evidence as to whether the District Construction Company, which is building the million and a half dollar bridge on Connecticut avenue, and the Penn Construction Company, which is building the 16th street, the Piney Branch and the Anacostia bridges, have been working their men more than eight hours a day. Several witnesses were examined this morning. As the grand jury is not now in session, and will not convene regularly until Sept. 5, Mr. Baker will take the cases into Police Court, if he finds that the evidence warrants prosecution. Two of the witnesses this morning declared that one of the companies under investigation had been at times working its men ten hours a day, but that the men did this voluntarily. They declared that the men were paid by the hour. Another case reported is in Charleston, S. C., and refers to work on the Government dry dock there.

President Roosevelt is much pleased with the success of the sale of the Panama bonds and the price obtained for the issue, and has sent congratulations to Secretary Shaw. As a result of the bond sale Secretary of the Treasury Shaw will deposit something over $20,000,000 in the various national banks.

Advices were received by the State Department today from United States Ambassador Meyer in St. Petersburg, Russia, in which he reports that the situation in the city of St. Petersburg yesterday was quiet. His cable report, which the officials of the State Department decline to make public for obvious reasons, stated in full the situation throughout Russia.

United States Minister Morgan, in Havana, Cuba, has reported to the State Department that there was no outrage apparent in the Isle of Pines incident, and that he has made a full report of the affair by mail. The officials of the State Department have from the first been inclined to believe the reported imprisonment in a Cuban jail of the American woman and man for laying a private telegraph line in the Isle of Pines has been grossly exaggerated. As a matter of precaution, however, the press reports from Cuba relative to the incident were reported by cable to Minister Morgan who today cabled he had not though the affair of sufficient importance to make a cable report, but had mailed a full story about it. Pending the receipt of this report the State Department will take no further action.

According to an accident bulletin which was made public by the Interstate Commerce Commission today, during the three months ending March 31, 1906, there were 18,296 casualties to railroad passengers and employes. Of these 1,126 were killed and 17,170 injured. This is an increase of 17 killed and 52 injured over those reported in the preceding three months. The property loss in these accidents was about ¾ million dollars. The commission calls attention to the fact that the most disastrous accident reported during the period was due to the striking failure of the train-dispatching system.

It was announced this morning at the Treasury Department that the Panama bond issue, bids for which were opened last week, was over-subscribed fifteen times. The total amount of bids, which has just been tabulated, reached the enormous sum of $445,000,000

The State Department announces that the Presidents of Guatemala, Salvador and Honduras have cabled their thanks to President Roosevelt and the President of Mexico for the part they took in bringing about peace between the three countries.

The heavy rain storm last night caused the tracks of the Columbia Transportation Company to become inundated and it was impossible for the cars to move. As a result some 1,400 excursionists to Chesapeake Beach were held up and it was nearly two o'clock before they reached their homes.

Sunday's Storm.

A storm which began in Baltimore yesterday afternoon developed into one of the heaviest rainfalls on record. Between 8:50 and 8 p. m. the local weather bureau recorded 3.66 inches precipitation, and at midnight rain was still falling steadily. At times the storm was violent, and the damage done in various sections of the city is estimated at about $20,000.

Pennsylvania Railroad trains eastbound were delayed half an hour by the giving way of an embankment at the entrance to a tunnel, and the Maryland and Pennsylvania Railroad lost three trestles between Baltimore and Woodbrook, besides suffering several washouts at different points. The engine room of a factory was washed away, and one of the walls of another building collapsed, having been undermined by the rush of water.

Low-lying sections of the city were for a time under four feet of water. Roads in the suburbs were badly washed, and considerable damage of the same sort is reported from sections of Baltimore county. The temperature fell twenty degrees within an hour.

A terrific thunderstorm swept over parts of Washington county, Md., and Franklin county Pa., yesterday afternoon, doing much damage. Rain fell in torrents, causing high waters in many points. At Clear Spring the damage was particularly heavy, part of the town being inundated. The storm at Pen Mar was very severe. In Waynesboro lightning struck the dwelling-house of William Irvine. No one was at home at the time, and the building caught fire and was badly damaged before the fire department arrived.

The Hartje Divorce Case.

Pittsburg, Pa., July 23.—Probably the last week of the sensational divorce suit of Hartje versus Hartje began with a sensation this morning. The announcement was made that Attorney W. H. Stanton, personal counsel for the colored coachman, Clifford Hooe, had "thrown up the sponge" and washed his hands of the conspiracy charges against his client. Stanton declared that Clifford Hooe has been continually lying to him, and has been so entirely unreliable in his statements that he would have nothing further to do with him. Attorney Freeman, of the defense, offered to put Mrs. Hartje, respondent, on the stand in order to deny the Hotel Lincoln and the Watson street house incidents. Judge Frazer stated, however, that such denial was not necessary; that nothing had been presented by the libellant to substantiate those allegations, and the court would therefore declare the respondent innocent of those charges. Thereupon the attorneys for the defense announced that they would rest. Rebuttal testimony was next in order.

Russian Bonds Falling.

Paris, July 23.—Russian 1906 bonds have dropped six points on the Bourse and are still falling as a result of the crisis in the Russian situation.

London, July 23.—The tone of the stock market was weak on account of the disquieting news from Russia. Consols were down ¼ and Russian bonds declined two points. The new Russian loan registered a nine-point discount.

New York, July 23.—The fresh complications which developed in the Russian situation since Saturday and the consequent unsettlement of European markets this morning were reflected in a generally lower range of quotations in the local stock market at the opening. Initial prices showed declines ranging from ¼ to 1 per cent., the latter amount being recorded in Great Northern.

Bomb Sent by Mail.

Paris, July 23.—A bomb, which had been sent by post, exploded this morning in the porcelain shop of M. Haegeli in the Rue Blondy near the Boulevard, Haegeli, who was handling the package at the time it exploded, was badly hurt and two other persons were injured.

News of the Day.

Rev. Lemuel Robeon, a preacher of the United Brethren Church, at Bedford, Ind., was shot and severely wounded Saturday by A. Y. White, a farmer, who accused the preacher of paying court to Mrs. White.

Justice Swayze, of New Brunswick, N. J., this morning sentenced Frederick Lang to be hanged on Tuesday, August 28, for the murder of his niece, Katie Gordon, a young Hungarian girl, because she would not marry him.

Mrs. Elizabeth Yates and her five children were found in a starving condition in a Philadelphia tenement Saturday. The woman died before she reached a hospital. She had deserted her husband in New Jersey for another man, who had in turn deserted her.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. McArthur and Miss Florence Tostevin, of Superior, Minn., were drowned in Superior Bay Saturday night during a severe electric storm. They were in a small boat half way between Oatka Beach and Memadji river when the storm capsized the craft.

Announcement was made at Newport, R. I., Saturday evening that Mrs. William R. Travers, one of the most beautiful and popular women in society circles not only in Newport, but in New York, had been married earlier in the day to Frederick C. Havemeyer, son of the late Theodore A. Havemeyer.

The steamer Vaderland which arrived at New York this morning from Antwerp and Dover, was in collision with and sank the fishing schooner John A. Allen of South Sharpswell, Maine, on Sunday morning, during a dense fog. The crew of seven men were picked up by the Vaderland and brought to port.

The surf claimed four victims within one hour at Atlantic City late Saturday evening. All met death under sensational circumstances. A father lost his life in a vain attempt to save his drowning daughter; a young man drowned after a friend nearly lost his life in a heroic endeavor to rescue him, and a middle-aged visitor was fatally stricken with hemorrhage while bathing.

Public Printer Stillings has suspended from office Assistant Foreman W. A. Miller, of the bindery of the Government Printing Office, on the recommendation of acting Foreman Ashton, the charges being insubordination and insolence. Mr. Stillings will make an investigation before taking final action, Miller was the immediate cause of the issuance by President Roosevelt of the order declaring the Government Printing Office and all places where workmen are employed by the government to be "open shops."

Five persons were killed and more than a score injured yesterday afternoon by a bolt of lightning which struck the grand stand of the baseball park, at Manitowac, Wis., where 150 people had gathered to see a game between a local team and a nine from Plymouth, Wis. When the storm came up and it began to rain, all sought shelter in the grand stand. Of the 150 persons in the grand stand, half were stunned by the bolt. Two were found dead in the stand, and the other three were found just outside on the ball field.

RUSSIAN AFFAIRS.

An imperial ukase has been promulgated dissolving parliament and fixing the time for the convocation of the newly elected assembly as March 5, 1907.

A second ukase places St. Petersburg in a state of extraordinary security by the declaration of a minor form of martial law.

A large part of the Province of Kiev where armed uprisings are anticipated in consequence of the dissolution of parliament, is placed under martial law.

The Emperior, discouraged by his failure to form a coalition ministry and the distinctly revolutionary paths which parliament has chosen, has been persuaded to risk a final appeal from parliament to the people, or, in other words, to dissolve parliament and order new elections on the basis of universal suffrage.

Evidently the government is not blind to the fact that the dissolution of parliament will be accompanied by tremendous excitement, riots and bloodshed, if nothing worse. Troops are being massed at St. Petersburg, Moscow and other centers, prepared to apply physical force, and, in addition to the guard regiments which were hurriedly marched into the capital Thursday night, the entire Twenty-third Division of infantry arrived there yesterday afternoon from Pskov. This imposing military array is expected to overawe the masses. The socialists and the group of toil in parliament have prepared for an emergency. They have drafted an address for issuance to the country the moment the dissolution is declared.

An imperial ukase relieves M. Goremykin of the Russian premiership and appoints M. Stolypin premier. He also retains his present post of minister of the interior. M. Stichinsky, minister of agriculture, has resigned.

The parliament building was closed yesterday and guarded by police, who refused admission except to the president and the vice president of the house.

With the imperial ukase dissolving parliament, which was promulgated early yesterday morning, the curtain rose upon possibly the last act in the drama of the Russian revolution. The people and the government now stand face to face, and upon the army depends the immediate issue.

During Saturday night additional troops were brought in and disposed of according to plans previously adopted. The troops occupied railroad stations and the bridges across the rivers and canals, and the patrols of both police and gendarmes were everywhere doubled.

The work of gathering in revolutionary agitators began immediately after the ukase placing St. Petersburg in "a state of extraordinary security" was promulgated, and hundreds of arrests were made before daylight.

Bear Ran Off With Hog.

George Brown, a farmer, of Deep Creek district, Norfolk county, had an exciting experience with a big bear Friday night. Mr. Brown was awakened by the squealing of a pig, and arming himself, went out to investigate. He followed the sound into the dismal swamp a mile or more before he came up with his bearship, carrying off a 175-pound hog.

As Mr. Brown reached the the spot the bear dropped the pig and scurried off; but knowing bruin's traits, Mr. Brown killed the pig, which was already badly injured, and set traps around the carcass. Saturday morning he found the bear tightly caught in a steel trap.

Young is charged with committing an assault upon Gussie Welch, an 11-year-old girl, living near Flint Hill, in that county. The crime was committed several days ago.

Frederick Smith, colored, one of the panel of 24 jurors summoned to try Jefferson Davis for high treason against the United States, died in the City Home in Richmond Saturday. The jury, which was possibly the first mixed petit jury ever impaneled in the United States, consisted of 11 white men and 13 negroes. Smith was in the ninetieth year of his age.

While Rev. Wilbur Cosby Bell, rector of Holy Trinity Episcopal Church, of Onancock; Rev G. Peyton Craighill, assistant rector of St John's Episcopal Church, Roanoke; Rev. William Laird, rector of St. James' Episcopal Church, Warrenton, and Mr. Warner Ames, a young lawyer of Onancock, were bathing on Metompkin Beach Wednesday, Mr. Ames became exhausted in deep water and the three ministers nearly lost their lives in rescuing him.

At Floyd Court-house Saturday evening the jury in the case of Frederick Hoback, charged with the murder a year ago of Curtis Jett, brought in a verdict of involuntary manslaughter and fixed the prisoner's punishment at 12 months in the county jail. Judge Moffett at once set aside the verdict and ordered that a new trial be entered. The trial which was the second, lasted one week and created general interest in the Southwest. The tragedy was the result of an elopement of Hoback's sister with Jett, which was frustrated by Fred Hoback. In a fight that followed Hoback's father was badly wounded Hoback himself was cut almost to death, and Jett was killed by pistol shots fired by Fred Hoback.

Today's Telegraphic News

Pan-American Conference.

Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, July 23.—At eight o'clock tonight the third conference of Pan-American nations will be formally opened in the pavilion which served to house the exhibit of the Brazilian government at the St. Louis Exposition. This ornate structure, brilliantly illuminated with electric lights, decorated with tropical flowers and plants and with the flags of the various countries of this hemisphere, will be a fitting scene for the gathering which promises to do so much towards promoting the peace and well-being, political and commercial, of the American republics. Tonight's meeting will be merely a preliminary function for the purpose of enabling the representatives of the Brazilian government to welcome their guests and to allow the delegates to become acquainted with each other.

It had been expected that the opening of the Congress would take place last Saturday, but a number of delegates, including those from the United States, were delayed in arriving. As it turns out, this was a happy accident, for in the meantime the news reached here that hostilities in Central America have ceased, and the conference will open with absolute peace prevailing throughout this continent.

Baron Rio Branco, minister for foreign affairs, will greet the delegates tonight in behalf of the Brazilian government and will hereafter preside over their deliberations. All delegates and officials will be in their court costumes, and the scene will be a brilliant and notable one.

Among the first subjects to be taken up in the congress will be the reorganization of the bureau of American republics; arbitration in disputes between the republics, and the extension of that idea by the Hague conference to every country, extension for 5 years of the treaty agreed upon at the Mexican conference for arbitration of pecuniary claims among the different republics; and that the Hague conference be requested to consider the extent to which, if any, force can be used for the collection of public debts.

Secretary of State Root, who is now in Brazilian waters, will arrive on Thursday. The President's palace in Petropolis, will be placed at Secretary Root's disposal.

Interparliamentary Peace Conference.

London, July 23.—The fourteenth meeting of the interparliamentary peace conference was opened this morning in Westminister Hall of the House of Lords. The conference will continue in session for three days and its most important work will be the discussion of a motion urging the enlargement of the functions of the Hague tribunal. There are 550 delegates attending the conference from most of the world's parliaments, including six deputies of the Russian Douma. America is represented by William Jennings Bryan and Congressman Burton, of Ohio; Hill, Granger, Goldfogle, Williams and Batholdt. About forty American congressman had intended to be present, but sent letters of regret at the last moment. Lord Weardale presided at the evening session today, and Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, the British Premier, delivered an address.

London, July, 23.—The scene at the opening of the conferece was remarkable, the delegates indulging in a demonstration showing their sympathy with the Russian douma which has just been dissolved by the Czar. It was also marked by a declaration from premier Campbell Bannerman favoring the submission of all questions to The Hague tribunal for settlement, as a substitute for war. Later the Russian delegates to the conference, who are members of the Douma, withdrew to make arrangements for returning immediately to Russia because of the important events which have occurred there in the last few days.

Killed by Pulajanes.

Manila, July 23.—Two Americans and twelve members of the Philippine constabulary were killed in a battle yesterday with pulajanes in the island of Leyte of the Visayan group. Two battalions of infantry have been sent in pursuit of the natives and a company of infantry has been ordered to reinforce the detachment of constabulary which was defeated. The pulajanes are fanatics and have given great trouble to the troops and constabulary. Hitherto, however, they have confined their depredations almost entirely to the island of Samar. Six hundred of the fanatics attacked a detachment of constabulary and the latter were defeated as they were outnumbered. A lieutenant and a scout, both Americans, were killed. Twelve of the privates also lost their lives. The bodies of the dead were recovered and buried. The pulajanes captured fourteen rifles, two revolvers and a quantity of ammunition. As soon as the news of the defeat of the constabulary arrived the troops were dispatched in pursuit. It is stated that there are between 600 and 1,000 pulajanes in the field.

Family all Drowned but Baby.

Portsmouth, R. I., July 23.—By the capizing of a sailing skiff yesterday Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Anthony, of Portsmouth, and their daughter, aged 4 years, were drowned, while their baby, aged 1 year, whose was the only other occupant of the boat, was saved. The baby was strapped in a small go cart and before the accident happened an oar had been placed, probably by accident, so it was wedged between the axles and the body of the carriage. When the boat capsized the baby floated securely in its go-cart, sustained by the oar, and drifted over to the ledge where Prudence lighthouse stands. The lighthouse keeper rescued it.

Train Ditched.

Akron, O., July 23.—Erie passenger train No. 8, which left Chicago at 9:30 o'clock last night, bound east, left the track at Burbank, Ohio, early today, and six cars went into a ditch. The only cars remaining on the tracks were the sleeper and diner. The train was running at the rate of about 35 miles an hour when the accident occurred. A meagre dispatch from the scene states that it is not believed that many of the passengers were seriously injured. Burbank is a small station 343 miles east of Chicago and is between Akron and Mansfield.

New York Stock Market.

New York, July 23.—The grave character of the news from Russia caused weakness in the market at the opening, but heavy buying orders from the strongest interests were in the market and the supply on the initial declines was quickly and easily absorbed. Declines, ranging from one-half to two points in the first few minutes were followed by advances of from one to four points. At the end of the first hour nearly everything on the list showed material gains over Saturday's close.

The Rusian Situation.

St. Petersburg, July 23.—During the early morning hours the streets were quiet notwithstanding the fears which had been expressed that disorders would begin almost as soon as the people generally should become acquainted with the fact that the Douma had been dissolved. The city presented its normal appearance except for the numerous military patrols in the streets. There are now 50,000 troops in the city beside strong artillery forces and these are counted on to prevent disorders.

The Czar's action in dissolving the Douma was not taken until after he had received positive assurances from General Trepoff that the army can be relied upon to outstamp any insurrection ruthlessly. General Trepoff has once again become the chief prop of Czardom, and he is now virtually Dictator of Russia. The fact that the people know that Trepoff will not hesitate to order the troops to fire upon them in case of any outbreak is having an unmistakeable influence in preventing disorder. Trepoff has ordered all commanding officers to treat theia soldiers with all possible consideration and he has bettered both the quality and quantity of their food as a means of strengthening their loyalty.

Early news from the provinces indicates that everything is quiet tnere.

Viborg, Finland, July 23. — A policy of passive resistance to the government, in an endeavor to cripple its power in every way possible, has been decided upon by the members of the Douma who came here for the purpose of continuing their deliberations following the dissolution of the national parliament. This course was decided upon today after the deputies had been in session almost continuously from the time of their arrival. It was determined to issue a manifesto to the people of the country calling on them to follow out the passive resistance policy by refusing to pay taxes or to serve in the army The deputies hope in this way to cripple the government. The decision to offer only passive resistance to the government, in retaliation for the dissolution of the Douma, was not arrived at until after a long and somewhat stirring debate.

Viborg, Finland, July 23.—The Government of Viborg this afternoon called at the Hotel Belviders where the members of the Douma were holding their sessions, and announced that he had been ordered by the Governor General to Finland, to close the meeting of the deputies even if it should be necessary to use force. He stated that the deputies will not be allowed to meet anywhere in Finland.

St. Petersburg, July 23.—A flotilla of German gunboats, which left Kiel several days ago for the Baltic for a cruise in those waters, is reported to be remaining within distance of easy communication with Peterhof by wireless telegraph to be prepared to come to the Czar's rescue in case he needs assistance.

St. Petersburg, July 23.—The Governor has issued a proclamation forbidding all processions of street gatherings. A friend of M. Stolypen was interviewed by the correspondent of the Publishers Press just after leaving the new Premier and said: "Premier Stolypen has resolved not to take any action likely to drive the people to resistance and will carefully avoid too reactionary measures. But he intends to take every possible means to prevent the publication of any manifesto issued at Viborg.

Russell Sage's Will.

New York, July 23.—Delancey Nicoll and Charles A. Gardiner, attorneys and counsel for the executors of the will of the late Russell Sage, today applied to Surrogate Thomas for an order authorizing the executors to continue the current business of the estate pending the filing of the will. The Surrogate said the business could go on as usual and he would sign an order later in the day. Wall street and the public awaits with great interest the disposition of Mr. Sage's vast fortune. Mr. Sage never gave any intimation of what he would do with his millions, but a year ago he remarked to an intimate friend: "Everybody will be much surprised to learn what I have done with my money. But they will never learn until I am dead."

A conference will be held today between Dr. B. J. Munn, Col J. J. Slocum, Mr. Sage's brother-in-law; Charles W. Osborne, his confidential man, and probably Mrs. Sage, at which the question of making public the general tenor of the will, will be discussed. Russell Sage was unique. He resembled none of the wealthy men of his day and generation. With enormous wealth, he cared nothing for the things that wealth could buy. He had no hobbies. Things that other millionaires are wont to spend their money on, had no charms for him. He cared nothing for art, music, pictures, steam yachts, social entertainments or books of travel. As wealthy as Croesus, his tates to the last remained as simple as those of a clerk in his employ.

New York, July 23.—Henry Clews, the banker, a close friend of the Sage family is quoted as saying today that the bulk of Russell Sage's wealth will ultimately go to charity. This disposition of the Sage's millions, he says, will probably not come until after the demise of Mrs. Sage.

Political Conference.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., July 23.—Speaker Cannon and Representatives Sherman, Laudenslager, McKinley, and Cocks arrived today to hold a conference with President Roosevelt over the congressional situation.

Senator Penrose, of Pennsylvania, also arrived at 12:20 p. m. to go to Sagamore Hill, and will take luncheon with the President and his other guests. Senator Penrose comes to talk over Keystone State politics.

Accused Dismissed.

New York, July 23.—No additional evidence was produced in court today to show that Alfred King, the book maker, and Mrs. McVittie were guilty of the charge of stealing $50,000 worth of jewelry from Mrs. Robert Corwin, and on motion of Assistant District Attorney Corrigan, they were discharged.

Longworths in Automobile Accident.

Berlin, July 23.—Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Longworth, while traveling near Wurzberg, Bavaria, were the victims of an automobile accident yesterday. Beyond receiving a severe jolt and a few bruises, they were not injured. The Longworths were on their way to Bayreuth, and shortly after passing Wurzburg the steering gear of the car became deranged. The machine veered off the road and fell down a slight embankment while traveling at a good rate of speed. Mr. and Mrs. Longworth returned to Wurzburg and took a train for Beyreuth arriving today.

Officers in Legion of Honor.

Paris, July 23.—Henry Cassard and Walter Gay, two American, living in Paris, and James Deering, of Chicago, have been appointed officers of the Legion of Honor. Dr. La Place, of Baltimore, and Walter Berry, who is described as a judge of the United States Supreme Court, have been made Knights of the Legion of Honor.

DEATH OF RUSSELL SAGE.

Russell Sage died suddenly yesterday at his country home, Cedarcroft, at Lawrence, L. I. The immediate cause of death was heart disease, resulting from a complication of diseases incident to old age. The veteran financier would have celebrated his eighty-seventh birthday on August 4.

At noon yesterday he was seized with a sinking spell and collapse, falling into unconsciousness about two hours before his death, which occurred at 4:30 o'clock.

The funeral services will be held on Wednesday at the West Presbyterian Church, in west Forty-second street, New York, of which Mr. Sage had been a member for many years. The interment will take place in Troy on Thursday.

Mr. Sage was propped up in his bed on the second floor of the house, and he gazed out on the ocean. Calling Mrs. Sage to the room shortly after noon, he pointed out to a full-rigged ship, with all sails set, that was disappearing on the far eastern horizon. The two talked for a short while, and Mr. Sage was in the best of humor.

He didn't realize that he was a very sick man, and the doctors had not attempted to impress on him the fact that the end was near. About 12:30 he grew faint and sank back on the bed. In a twinkling he was unconscious. Dr. J. Carl Schmuck, the local physician attending Mr. Sage, saw the condition of the patent and sent a hurry call to New York for Dr. Janeway. The latter went to Lawrence as fast as his automobile could travel. He reached the house sometime before Mr. Sage expired, at 4:20 o'clock.

As Mr Sage had sank into unconsciousness, there were no farewell words. Those at the bedside say that the end was quite peaceful.

Russell Sage was born in Shenandoah, N. Y., August 4, 1816. He was employed as a messenger in his brother's store at $4 a month at the age of 15 years. At about 18 years of age he built a sloop and began a transportation business between New York and Troy. He was worth $25,000 at the age of 22 years, and in five years bought out his partner in the wholesale grocery business for $150,000. Early in life he acquired a large interest in the Chicago and Milwaukee and St. Paul Railway system, his first railroad venture. From 1853 to 1857 he served in Congress. He became associated with Jay Gould in 1863 and invented the "put," "call" and "straddle" system of speculation, by which it is said he lost $7,000,000 on one occasion. An attempt was made on his life in 1891 by Henry W. Norcross, who was killed by his own bomb. Mr. Sage married Miss Maria Winne in 1841, and upon her death married Miss Margaret O. Slocum about 1869. He retired from active business in 1903 at the of 87 years. Some estimates put his wealth as high as $80,000,000.

Speaker Cannon virtually admits that he will be a candidate for the republican presidential nomination of 1908.

The Electric Franchise.

The joint committee on light, finance and general laws of the City Council met in the Common Council chamber Saturday night and after hearing the report of Mr. Hugh Hazleton, an electrical expert from New York, who was retained by the city to advise the committee on the technical points of the various bids submitted to Council July 10, decided to recommend the passage of an ordinance accepting the proposition of Mr. E. E Mandeville, of Philadelphia. This had been anticipated from the time the bids were submitted, as that of Mr. Mandeville was considered the best and most advantageous for the city. The Mandeville bid was $5,000 for the franchise for thirty years, or $8,500 for the franchise and the old plant, the city to use not less than eighty-five arc lights at a price not to exceed $75 per annum. His price for incandescent lights for municipal purposes is $16 50 per annum for twenty-five candle power lamps, and $19.50 for thirty two candle power lamps. For current to private consumers Mr. Mandeville proposes to charge 12 cents net for the first hour and 7 cents for each additional hour, and to give a discount of 50 per cent. on incandescent lights used by the city, except in the court house, the engine houses and the Mayor's office, which shall be free. The churches, the armory and the hospital are to be allowed a discount of 50 per cent. He offers the city 5 per cent. of the gross receipts in lieu of taxes.

There were several other bids from outsiders, and it is understood that the Washington, Alexandria and Mount Vernon Railway Company was anxious to submit a proposition, but could not come before the committee at this meeting. It is understood that the electric railway company is prepared to offer a rate of $48 per annum for arc lights, provided that not less than 100 lights will be used, and will sell current to the city to be retailed to the consumers at a rate not to exceed 8 cents per kilowatt hour.

Heavy Rains.

The humid weather of yesterday was followed in the afternoon by a shower of rain, followed by others at intervals until nearly midnight. Thunder and lightning accompanied the downpours The rainfall after dark was torrential at times, flooding the streets and in some instances choking sewers. But few persons attended the night services in the churches in consequence of the rain. Lightning was flashing almost incessantly and there were some heavy crashes of thunder. About the time the excursion steamers arrived up the rain was falling in torrents. As is usual on Sundays, the river was dotted with gasoline launches, most of which came from Washington. They were compelled to battle with the elements on their homeward runs. So far as is known there were no accidents to any of them. Roads and bridges near this city are said to have been considerably damaged by the rains.

The Churches

Owing to the sultry weather of yesterday morning the churches, as a rule, were but thinly attended, and at night the heavy rains kept many people at home. The services were conducted according to the announcements in Saturday's Gazette. Bishop Granberry preached an interesting and instructive sermon yesterday morning at 11 o'clock at the Southern Methodist Church. Both the morning and evening sermons at the Second Presbyterian Church were preached by Rev. Thomas Gordon. At St. Mary's Church the services were conducted by Rev. Father Lawrence Kelly, the assistant rector of the church, assisted by Rev. Father Richard L. Carne, of Old Point Comfort. The services at the Methodist Protestant Church were conducted by Rev. Mr. Tyson. The services in the other churches were in charge of their respective pastors.

Fell Into a Cellar.

Mr. J. William Norris, a carpenter living on north Fairfax street, late Saturday night stepped inside the new entrance which is being constructed on the west side of the Braddock House, and in the darkness failed to notice that there was an opening into the cellar. Mr. Norris fell to the cellar floor, but was not rendered unconscious, and his groans attracted the attention of several passersby, including Policeman Roberts. Mr. Norris was carried to the office of Dr. Warfield, where it was found that his left wrist had been fractured and he had received a number of painful bruises. He was removed to his home.

Rat Trap In Trousers.

Philip Rodney, of Centreville, Pa., a prominent business man, discovered recently that his wife had been obtaining spending money out of his trousers pockets while he slept. He remonstrated with her, but his wife insisted she had a right to the money. Serious quarrels followed, but Mrs. Rodney kept getting the money. Friday night Rodney, determined to break up his wife's practice, got a small, strong rat trap and placed it in his money pocket with the jaws toward the opening. He was awakened shortly after midnight by his wife's screams, and, jumping out of bed, discovered her hand tightly wedged in the sharp jaws of the steel trap. The woman begged to be released, but Rodney, she declares, allowed her to suffer for a while before he freed her. Her hand was badly lacerated. Mrs. Rodney left her husband next day and took up her residence with her parents. She says she will no longer live with him.

The Clyde at Glasgow.

There are magnificent harbors in the old world which have been dug out of shallow sloughs and sluggish ditches. The Elbe at Hamburg is a narrow and insignificant stream compared with the great rivers of this western world. Yet for some score of miles down the Elbe from Hamburg to the sea this river's shores are lined with the seagoing craft of all the maritime nations of the world. Where Glasgow is situated, on the Clyde, that stream was once what is known in America as "a creek." Yet the Clyde has been dredged out until today the leviathans of peace and war, the great sea monsters of the transatlantic lines, the creations of the great captains of the shipbuilding industry, are built and launched there month after month, year after year. So narrow is the Clyde at Glasgow that these ships, some of them five and six hundred feet in length, cannot be launched head to the stream, as is the custom, but are launched broadside on for fear they should run their bows into the opposite bank.—Argonaut.

A Bride of Morocco.

Says an observer of conditions in modern Morocco: "The wife is bought in Morocco today, and the sum paid is agreed upon between her father and the would be husband. Sometimes a cow may be sufficient to procure a bride, at other times many cattle and several dollars are necessary for her purchase. The bride is, of course, dressed in suitable costume, but the most interesting part of her toilet to a stranger is the decoration of henna. The henna, pounded and mixed with lemon juice, is sometimes painted directly on to her face, arms, hands and legs. At other times a stencil pattern it put on her flesh and the perforated holes filled up with the henna. By the time this is completed she is tattooed with a dark design. Society women in more enlightened countries who wear lace blouses in a hot summer sun often find their arms and neck burned into a pattern which has much the same effect as the henna tattoo on the poor little Moorish maid."

How the Burro Eats Thistles.

The Rocky mountain burro, one of the most sagacious of animals, seeks the thistle as a favorite food, and the pungent spines with which it protects its leaves at every angle are doubtless a recognition on its part of this fondness of grazing animals for it. Few experiences of frontier life are more amusing than to watch the donkey's attack upon a large bull thistle. He walks about it, seeking for a favorable opening, projects his lip gingerly against its spines and jerks back as he feels its pricks. He surveys it pensively for a moment or two and then slowly raises his foot and strikes it, pausing to watch the effect of the blow. He then perhaps strikes it from the other side and watches again. The blows become rapid, and at length it is broken down and thoroughly trampled, after which it is consumed to the last vestige.—Country Life In America.

A Homiletical Repeater.

"It was in a small German congregation that I heard a preacher who when he had completed his introduction and first point said, 'I have come to the second head.' A man rose, rubbed his eyes, folded his arms across his breast and appeared ready for that head. When it was finished he had overcome the drowsiness and sat down. During the elucidation of the third head three other men stood up. At the close of his sermon the preacher found all his people asleep. As he stopped they all looked up and seemed greatly relieved. But the good man said, 'You have slept all through the sermon, and as this is a sermon you all ought to hear I will begin it anew.'"—Ecclesiastical Review.

The Face.

Nature has laid out all her art in beautifying the face. She has touched it with vermilion, planted in it a double row of ivory, made it the seat of smiles and blushes, lighted it up and enlivened it with the brightness of the eyes, lining it at each side with curious organs of sense, given it airs and graces that cannot be described and surrounded it with such a flowing shade of hair as sets all its beauties in the most agreeable light.—Addison.

Wanted to Be In Time.

A wealthy Parisian, tired of supporting his nephew, determined to get him married off and settled. He called upon a matrimonial agent and looked over his album of candidates for husbands. To his horror he found the picture of his own pretty young wife. He reproached her and demanded an explanation. "I do not deny it," she said, "but it was last year, when, as you know, dearest, you had been given up by all the doctors."

Willing, But—

Theatrical Manager—What are you going to do with all that wall paper? Green Hand—Why, when you hired me you said you wanted me to make myself generally useful, and I heard you say yesterday that you would have to paper the house tomorrow, so I thought I would get you these samples to look at.—New York Press.

Too Personal.

"What caused you to strike the customer?"

"He sets down, an' when I asts him what it'll be," explained the new waiter, "he sez, 'You ain't got no brains, have you?' an' then I soaked him one."

A Change of Climate.

His Wife—John, dear, the doctor says I need a change of climate. Her Husband—All right. The weather prophet says it will be colder tomorrow.

Those who wish to appear wise among fools, among the wise seem foolish.—Quintillian.

Worked Out.

They were talking about futility and for some reason known only to each other failed to agree. Finally she asked:

"Well, now, suppose you give me an example of what you call futility."

"All right," said he. "Multiply 3,040 by 721."

She took a pencil in her hand, seized a piece of paper and after a few minutes of diligent figuring announced the result.

"It is 2,845,066," said she.

"Divide that by 2," he continued.

"It is 1,422,533," she said.

"Very well," said he. "Now add 7 to that and then subtract 1,422,540 and tell me what you get."

"The result is 0," said she after further figuring.

"Well, that's what I call futility," said he, with a laugh. "You've covered a sheet of paper with figures to arrive at nothing."

Whereupon she became so angry with him that she refused to argue any further on the subject.—London Sphere.

The Formation of Coal.

Many different theories are held by geologists to account for the formation of beds of coal between strata of rock. The simplest of them is that vast masses of wood, such as grew in the carboniferous age of the earth's development, were sunk under the sea, that deposits of silt upon them changed to rock and that by some upheaval of the earth the bottom of the sea was lifted above sea level. Such upheaval occurred in remote geologic ages in the Mississippi valley, all the central parts of which were undoubtedly at one time covered with water and formed an arm of the sea. The one thing certain about coal is that by one process of nature or another it has been converted from the giant trees which grew in the carboniferous age of geology. How many thousands or millions of years that was nobody knows. All that is known about the duration of different geologic ages of the world is that they were long.

Dramatic Detail.

Sir Henry Irving was accustomed to visit at the home of Miss Frewell, author of "In the Sixties and Seventies," in which volume appears the following anecdote: "My mother often used to point out little details that had been overlooked. I remember one in 'The Bells,' which my mother told Mr. Irving on the first night when he returned to our house to supper. People who have seen the play may remember that the first scene is a small inn and that there is supposed to have been a deep fall of snow. The innkeeper, Matthias (Irving), walked in on that first night in ordinary black boots, with no snow upon them. My mother spoke of it, and afterward Matthias wore high black boots and stood on the mat while the snow was brushed off. Remarks were made in the papers as to Mr. Irving's attention to the minutest details, and this was cited as an instance."

Punishments In Early Days.

The following extracts from early records give us a glimpse of some of the singular punishments in vogue in old New England:

"In 1639 Dorothy Brown, for beating her husband, is ordered to be bound and chained to a post."

"In 1643 the assistants order three Stoneham men to sit in the stocks on lecture day for traveling on the Sabbath."

"In 1651 Anna, wife of George Ellis, was sentenced to be publicly whipped for reproaching the magistrates."

"In 1658, for slandering the elders, she had a cleft stick put on her tongue for half an hour."

An Odd Sermon.

It seems doubtful if there is anything more crooked than the following title of a pamphlet published in 1703: "The Deformity of Sin Cured; a Sermon Preached at St. Michael's, Crooked Lane, Before the Prince of Orange, by the Rev. J. Crookshanks." The pamphlet was sold by Matthew Denton at the Crooked Billet near Grippie gate. The words of the text are, "Every crooked path shall be made straight," and the prince before whom it was read was deformed.

Linen Paper.

The only real linen paper made in the United States is that used for government documents. All the so called linen papers are largely made from cotton rags with some linen mixed in. The reason for this is that it is extremely difficult to separate cotton and linen rags. The government gets around this difficulty by using nothing but clippings from collars and shirts.

His Lamp.

Billy Bleecker, can you tell me why our little friend Aladdin rubbed his lamp? Billy Bleecker (vaguely)—If he wuzn't gettin' sleepy he must 'a' had a cinder in it.—Puck.

Caustic.

Scene—Train stopping at small roadside station. Irritable Old Gentleman—What on earth do they stop at a station like this for? Objectionable Passenger (alighting)—To allow me to get out. Irritable Old Gentleman—Ah! I see it has its advantages, then?

Up Against It.

"But the worst of his case is, he can't escape even then!"—Detroit Free Press.

Agreed.
